CALL FOR SPEAKERS

Mountain Rescue Association National Conference

June 2-4, 2017 | Boise, Idaho

Hosted by Idaho Mountain Search and Rescue Unit

The Mountain Rescue Association National Conference is the largest annual gathering of mountain rescue professionals. The 2017 conference will feature instructional courses, technical field sessions, equipment demonstrations and social events that cater to all experience levels. From search and rescue professionals and incident commanders to first-year members, all will have the opportunity to learn new skills and share their knowledge with peers.

Subject matter includes mountain rescue techniques and skills, search skills, incident command management, and pioneering technology being incorporated into the mountain rescues of today and tomorrow. Attendees will include search and rescue professionals from throughout the United States and abroad.

Please consider joining us in Boise, Idaho to share your expertise and/or experiences with fellow peers and professionals. Boise offers rivers, mountains, deserts, lakes, and varying terrain, all within reach from the conference location. This makes it the perfect location to demonstrate, practice, and explore everything that makes our search and rescue community so diverse and skilled.

Speakers will be given a discounted registration fee for the 2017 MRA National Conference. Deadline for submission is March 1, 2017. For consideration, please fill out the attached form and email it to sarcon@imsaru.org with the subject line "Call for Speakers."
